JOINT CASE MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

Plaintiffs,

Date: January 16, 2008
Time: 9:30 a.m.
Judge: Honorable Richard Seeborg

18 CONNECTU, INC. (formerly known as 19 CONNECTU, LLC), PACIFIC
20 NORTHWEST SOFTWARE, INC.,
WINSTON WILLIAMS, WAYNE CHA
and DAVID GUCWA,

Defendants

1 This Court has set a Case Management Conference for January 16, 2008. At the time the 2 previous Joint Case Management Conference Statement was filed, the case was not fully at issue
3 as numerous parties were challenging jurisdiction. Plaintiffs believe the case is now at issue for 4 all parties to the case. Some of the Defendants however will likely request leave to file
5 affirmative counterclaims in light of the discovery recently produced by Plaintiffs. This is 6 discussed in detail below. In any event, in light of this discovery, Defendants do not believe the 7 case is "at-issue" as the pleadings that frame the issues to be tried will likely change. Discovery
8 has been occurring in the interim.

9 I. JURISDICTION AND SERVICE

10 Plaintiffs contend that this Court has subject matter jurisdiction over Plaintiffs' claims
11 under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1332, and 1367, and that venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1391. All 12 named defendants have been served with the Second Amended Complaint. See Dkt. No. 76.

13 II. FACTS

14 The Parties believe that the issues, facts, and parties (including who has answered and 15 who may still challenge jurisdiction), have been presented in detail in other pleadings. Plaintiffs 16 assert that that many of the key facts are set forth in plaintiffs' currently pending summary
17 judgment motion. Defendants dispute that Plaintiffs' pending motion for summary judgment
18 accurately sets forth the facts. The parties will be prepared to discuss the factual allegations of 19 the case, if necessary, at the conference.

20 III. LEGAL ISSUES

- 21 1. Did Defendants violate California Penal Code § 502(c)?
- 22 2. Did Defendants engage in common law misappropriation/unfair competition?
- 23 3. Did Defendants violate Massachusetts General Law § 93A?
- 24 4. Did defendants violate the CAN SPAM Act, 15 U.S.C. § 7704?
- 25 5. Did defendants violate the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act, 18 U.S.C. § 1030?
- 26 6. What damages, if any, are available to Defendants in the event a claim is successful?
- 27 7. Do one or more of the affirmative defenses in Defendants' Answer bar any or all of 28 Plaintiffs' claims?

1 8. In light of the discovery Plaintiffs recently produced as a result of an order compelling
2 such production, should Defendants be entitled to amend their answer to assert
3 affirmative counterclaims?

4 IV. MOTIONS

5 Resolved Motions.

6 1. Defendant ConnectU filed a Demurrer on October 25, 2005; the demurrer was 7 overruled.

8 2. Cameron Winklevoss, Tyler Winklevoss, Divya Narendra, Howard Winklevoss, filed 9 a Motion to Quash because the Court lacked personal jurisdiction on October 25, 2005, which 10 was granted.

11 3. Defendant ConnectU filed a Motion to Stay on September 6, 2006, which was denied.

12 4. Both parties filed various motions to compel discovery in Superior Court, prior to this 13 case's removal to this Court. Facebook's motion to compel further responses to document
14 requests was pending at the time ConnectU removed this action to this Court.

15 5. Facebook filed a Motion for Leave to File a First Amended Complaint on January 23, 16 2007, which was granted.

17 6. ConnectU filed a Motion to Dismiss pursuant to Federal Rule 12(b)(6) on March 21, 18 2007, which was granted-in-part.

19 7. Facebook filed, on April 4, 2007, a Local Rule 6-3 motion to enlarge the time required 20 for it to respond to Pacific Northwest Software and Williams' Motion to Dismiss, which was 21 granted.

22 8. Facebook filed a Motion for Expedited Discovery on April 5, 2007, which was 23 granted. Facebook filed, on April 9, 2007, a Motion to Reschedule the June 20, 2007, CMC, 24 which was denied.

25 9. ConnectU filed, on June 5, 2007, a Local Rule 6-3 motion to enlarge time to respond
26 to the Second Amended Complaint, which was granted-in-part.

27 10. Plaintiffs filed a Motion to Strike the Affirmative Defenses of ConnectU, Inc. on July 28 10, 2007, which this Court denied on August 14, 2007.

1 11. Defendants Pacific Northwest Software and Winston Williams filed a Motion to 2 Dismiss for Lack of Personal Jurisdiction on March 21, 2007, which was denied on August 13, 3 2007.

4 12. Plaintiffs filed a Motion for Sanctions on August 22, 2007, which the Court denied on 5 November 30, 2007.

6 13. Defendants Winklevoss and Narendra filed a Motion to Dismiss on September 5, 7 2007, which was granted on November 30, 2007.

8 14. Plaintiffs filed a Motion to Compel Defendants Pacific Northwest Software and 9 Winston Williams to Provide further Responses to Interrogatories Nos. 3-4, which this Court
10 granted on December 12, 2007.

11 15. On December 18, 2007, Finnegan, Henderson, Farabow, Garrett & Dunner
12 (“Finnegan”) filed a Motion to Withdraw as Counsel for Defendant Winston Williams, setting the 13 matter for hearing on January 23, 2008. Plaintiffs responded to this motion on January 2, 2008.
14 The same day, Williams executed a declaration, which was not received by Plaintiffs until 15 January 5, 2008. On January 7, 2008, Plaintiffs advised the Court of the Declaration, and 16 indicated that they may seek remedial relief as a result of their filing an unnecessary Response to 17 the Motion. Later in the day on January 7, 2008, Finnegan withdrew the Motion to Withdraw.

18 16. Finnegan filed, on December 18, 2007, a Local Rule 6-3 motion to shorten time to 19 withdraw as counsel for Defendant Winston Williams, which this Court denied on December 21, 20 2007.

21 Pending Motions

22 1. On January 7, 2008, Plaintiffs filed a Motion for Partial Summary Judgment Re
23 Defendants’ Liability Pursuant to California Penal Code Section 502(c) and 15 U.S.C.
24 § 7704(a)(1) and 15 U.S.C. § 7704(b)(1), which has been noticed for hearing on February 13, 25 2008.

26 2. On January 7, 2008, Plaintiffs filed a Motion to Seal Portions of Their Motion for 27 Partial Summary Judgment Re Defendants’ Liability Pursuant to California Penal Code Section
28 502(c) and 15 U.S.C. § 7704(a)(1) and 15 U.S.C. § 7704(b)(1), the Declaration of Chris Shiflett

1 in Support Thereof Including Exhibits 1-3; and Exhibits 1, 2 and 4 to the Declaration of Monte
2 M.F. Cooper in Support Thereof.

3 3. On January 10, 2008, Defendants filed a Motion Pursuant to Fed.R.Civ. P. 56(f)
4 regarding Plaintiffs' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment, which has been set for hearing on 5 February 20, 2008.

6 4. On January 10, 2008, Defendants filed a Civil L.R. 6-3 application to enlarge the 7 briefing time for the opposition to Plaintiffs' Motion for Partial Summary Judgment.

8 Anticipated Motions

9 Plaintiffs' Position: Plaintiffs' believe that a discovery conference may assist in quickly
10 resolving the numerous discovery disputes with defendants. In the event the Court prefers 11 standard motions practice, Plaintiffs expect to file Motions to Compel shortly with respect to the 12 following issues a) Defendants Chang's, Williams', ConnectU's, and PNS' responses to 13 interrogatories, and b) Chang's, PNS' and Williams' responses to Requests for Production of 14 Documents. Plaintiffs also will file a further motion to compel and/or for contempt due to PNS'
15 and Williams' failure to comply with the Court's December 13, 2007, and December 21, 2007
16 Orders, and may seek various remedies including (but not limited to) evidence preclusion, 17 forensic recovery of information associated with programs employed by Defendants, and/or 18 terminating sanctions.

19 Plaintiffs also may file a motion for reimbursement of its fees/costs associated with 20 opposing Finnegan's Motion to Withdraw.

21 Plaintiffs also may file one or more additional motions for summary judgment.

22 Defendants' statement below regarding an order to compel issued in the Massachusetts
23 action regarding Mark Zuckerberg and Adam D'Angelo is inaccurate.

24 Defendants' Position: As a result of a Court order issued in the Massachusetts action, 25 Plaintiffs' principals, including Mark Zuckerberg and Adam D'Angelo were compelled to 26 produce additional documents and things, including computer code they used in 2004 and 2005.
27 The initial discovery seeking this information was propounded in 2005. Plaintiffs recently 28 produced the computer code. (Once the California action was filed, the parties agreed that the

1 discovery propounded in the Massachusetts case would be assumed to have been made in the 2 California case, and vice-versa.) The preliminary investigation of this code shows that Plaintiffs'
3 principals were involved in a scheme to hack into www.connectu.com, a clear violation of some 4 of the very statutes asserted in the Second Amended Complaint. Once Defendants complete their 5 analysis of this code, and perhaps take additional discovery, Defendants will likely file a motion
6 for leave to file an affirmative counterclaim regarding these and other facts that are discovered.
7 Additionally, once Plaintiffs are compelled to produce all responsive documents to outstanding
8 discovery requests, Defendants will take depositions and thereafter file summary judgment
9 motions.

10 V. AMENDMENT OF PLEADINGS

11 Plaintiffs' Position: Plaintiffs do not anticipate adding or dismissing any parties, claims,
12 or defenses. Plaintiffs note that there are two a clerical errors in the Second Amended Complaint, 13 and seek the Court's guidance on how best to proceed, other than filing a noticed motion. The 14 Second Amended Complaint contains an inadvertent citation to the "Federal Rules of Civil 15 Procedures Sections 1331, 1332, 1391(b) and (c)." This passage should cite to "28 U.S.C.
16 Sections 1331, 1332, 1367, and 1391(b) and (c)." In addition, Paragraph 6 of the Prayer indicates 17 that Plaintiffs seek: "Statutory damages under 15 U.S.C. § 7701, et seq., calculated as the number 18 of violations multiplied by up to $250, in an amount not to exceed $2,000,000." The reference to 19 the phrase "multiplied by up to $250, in an amount not to exceed $2,000,000" is an inadvertent
20 reference to the damages available to the Attorney General. Plaintiffs wish to amend this 21 recitation to read: "Statutory damages under 15 U.S.C. § 7706, et seq."

22 Defendants' Position: As established above, Plaintiffs' two year delay in responding to 23 discovery, which was later compelled by Court Order, has interfered with Defendants'
24 investigation of Plaintiffs' wrongful acts. The recently-produced computer code written by 25 Plaintiffs reveals that they were involved in a scheme to hack into www.connectu.com.
26 Defendants expect to complete their initial investigation and thereafter move for leave to file 27 affirmative counterclaims regarding these and perhaps other wrongful acts commissioned by 28 Plaintiffs.

1 VI. EVIDENCE PRESERVATION

2 Plaintiffs' Position: Because discovery relevant in this case already has taken place in 3 related cases, potential evidence in this action has already been collected. In addition, Plaintiffs 4 have sent company-wide emails to prevent any on-going erasures of any potentially relevant
5 material. During prior discovery, Plaintiffs encountered certain technical difficulties while 6 gathering documents from a single computer hard drive. After attempting all reasonable means of 7 data recovery, Plaintiffs have extracted all recoverable information from the computer hard drive.
8 Moreover, the Court in Massachusetts implemented a protocol whereby ConnectU's own expert
9 also has been permitted to extract information. The Court in Massachusetts also has pending a 10 before it a Motion to Compel whereby it may order ConnectU's Founders, Howard Winklevoss, 11 PNS and/or Williams to permit similar extraction of information.

12 Plaintiffs learned that measures to preserve some evidence from Defendants, such as 13 electronic information from Winston Williams and PNS' weblog information associated with 14 ConnectU's Social Butterfly, were not taken. Williams' further claims his computer was stolen.

15 Defendants' Position: Appropriate notification to the parties regarding the preservation of 16 evidence was provided. Plaintiffs' unsupported allegation that appropriate measures were not 17 taken to preserve evidence, is false. Further, Plaintiffs' statement regarding a pending motion
18 before the Massachusetts Court is inaccurate and in any event irrelevant to the issue of evidence 19 preservation.

20 VII. INITIAL DISCLOSURES

21 The parties will discuss the scheduling of initial disclosures pursuant to Rule 26 at the 22 Case Management Conference. Plaintiffs believe Rule 26 disclosures should be exchanged 23 promptly after the hearing. Defendants will be prepared to discuss the timing of initial 24 disclosures at the Court's convenience.

25 VIII. DISCOVERY

26 Plaintiffs' Position: The vast majority of discovery in this case is complete. Plaintiffs 27 believe the primary remaining issue is the number of false emails sent to stolen email addresses.
28 Plaintiffs propose the schedule set forth at the end of this statement.

1 Other than for jurisdictional discovery, ConnectU has not served a single deposition notice
2 in this action over two years. ConnectU did serve 26 requests for production to which Facebook
3 responded. ConnectU filed a motion to compel which was denied. ConnectU served a second set
4 of document requests on September 26, 2007. Defendants have not sought any other discovery to 5 date, even though ConnectU has had ample time to do so.

6 Defendants' Position: Much discovery remains to be completed. Given the protracted 7 pleading activities occasioned by the complaint and two separate amendments to the complaint
8 that have been filed in this case, including Plaintiffs' inappropriate efforts to re-name parties that 9 the Superior Court had previously dismissed, it has been unclear until recently which causes of 10 action would remain, and which parties would remain in the case. Defendants' efforts to conduct
11 discovery have been stalled because Plaintiffs continue to refuse to complete document
12 production pursuant to document requests propounded in August. Once Defendants review
13 Plaintiffs' recent but very tardy document production, they will notice what they currently expect
14 to be 3 or 4 depositions regarding the documents and hard drives recently produced. Defendants
15 expect to notice additional Rule 30(b)(6) depositions and at least two non-party depositions.
16 Defendants also anticipate propounding at least one additional document demand, and at least one 17 set of Requests for Admission.

18 A. Fact and Expert Depositions

19 Plaintiffs' Position: Plaintiffs propose that the Court waive the requirement of 10 total
20 depositions set forth in Rule 30, and that instead each side be allowed to take up to 50 total hours
21 of fact witness depositions (including F.R.C.P. 30(b)(6) depositions), in addition to the limited
22 jurisdictional discovery already authorized by this Court. The timing rule is warranted due to the 23 number of third party witnesses who reside outside of California whose testimony must be 24 preserved for trial. Plaintiffs further propose that each side be allowed to take seven deposition 25 hours per expert report, should they be necessary.

26 Defendants' Position: The Federal and Local Rules regarding discovery should apply to 27 this case. Defendants note the inconsistency between Plaintiffs' statement in the immediately 28 preceding section where they assert "the vast majority of discovery is largely completed" and

1 their comments that the Federal Rules should be ignored, with the inference that a large number
2 of witnesses will be deposed.

3 B. Interrogatories

4 Plaintiffs' Position: Each party currently represented by separate counsel should be 5 entitled to propound 25 interrogatories, not counting interrogatories previously served in 6 California Superior Court. Recently, a dispute arose in which Defendants' argued that Plaintiffs
7 are not entitled to serve these 25 interrogatories on Defendant ConnectU. The basis for this
8 argument is that Facebook served 23 interrogatories while the case was pending in Superior
9 Court. Those interrogatories were authorized by the Superior Court in response to Facebook's 10 request to oppose a motion to quash, and in any event were served under an entirely different 11 discovery system. All 23 interrogatories were related to whether or not the Superior Court could 12 exercise personal jurisdiction over three individual defendants. Plaintiffs believe those 13 jurisdictional interrogatories, and all other interrogatories previously served in Superior Court,
14 should not count against their ability to serve additional interrogatories in this case, consistent 15 with the parties' agreement that each party is entitled to propound 25 interrogatories.

16 Defendants' Position: The Federal and Local Rule should control. Plaintiffs 17 mischaracterize the circumstances concerning their prior discovery, in an effort to expand the 18 limitations of these rules. If Plaintiffs wish relief from these Rules they should make their request 19 in a motion.

20 C. Requests for Admissions

21 The parties agree that the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure shall govern Requests for 22 Admission.

23 D. Requests For Production

24 Plaintiffs' Position: The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure shall govern Requests for 25 Production of Documents and Things.

26 Based on representations by their counsel, document collection from Defendants
27 ConnectU and Gucwa is largely complete at this time. Document collection from Defendants 28 PNS, Williams and Chang remains.

1 From correspondence, it appears that defendants production has largely been self selected.
2 As numerous gaps do appear, plaintiffs have or will request production of Defendants' hard
3 drives/memory devices.

4 Defendants: Position: See Defendants' discussion in the section immediately below VIII.
5 Defendants do not understand Plaintiffs' comments about discovery being "self selected."
6 Defendants have reasonably investigated the location and either have produced or are in the 7 process of producing all existing responsive documents that are not otherwise privileged.

8 E. Protective Order

9 The parties entered into a stipulated protective order while the action was pending before 10 the California court. The parties ask this Court to adopt the Stipulated Protective Order agreed to 11 by the parties and entered by the Superior Court on January 23, 2006, or provide the parties
12 guidance on how the Court wishes to proceed. The parties have been abiding by this Court's 13 Local Rules, including Civil L.R. 79-5 even though this Protective Order is silent regarding such 14 provisions.

15 F. Electronic Mail Service

16 Plaintiffs' Position: Plaintiffs propose that in addition to service by mail, the parties also 17 must provide copies by electronic mail of any discovery request, discovery response, subpoena, 18 pleading, or the like.

19 Defendants' Position: Service should be effected through any method authorized pursuant 20 to the Federal and Local Rules.

21 G. Meet-and-Confer Deadline

22 Plaintiffs' Position: Plaintiffs propose that all meet-and-confer conferences required by 23 Federal Rule 37 and/or the Local Civil Rules must occur within five business days of the demand.
24 Plaintiffs make such a proposal because to date, Defendants have required at least two weeks to 25 conduct every single meet-and-confer associated with discovery disputes, resulting in 26 unnecessary and prejudicial delay.

27 Defendants' Position: Defendants do not believe a deadline for conferences should be set.
28 Initially, Plaintiffs misrepresent the circumstances of previous meet and confers. In any event,

1 the timing of conferences should be “reasonable” and Defendants’ responses to Plaintiffs’
2 requests for such conferences have been reasonable in each instance. Plaintiffs apparently have at 3 least 6 attorneys working on this case, on what appears to be a full time basis. The Massachusetts
4 Court recently concluded that that case was “overstaffed.” In any event, Defendants ConnectU,
5 PNS, Williams and Chang are, for the most part, represented by one lawyer. Defendant Gucwa is 6 represented by separate counsel. Meet and confers should be arranged consistent with counsel’s
7 schedule, and they have been. There have been several instances where Defendants have 8 proposed dates to Plaintiffs that Plaintiffs have responded to be inconvenient. Defendants have 9 extended the courtesies of agreeing to alternative dates. Plaintiffs’ counsel however in many 10 instances, have insisted that conferences should occur on their timeline without given 11 consideration to opposing counsel’s schedule. As stated, conferences have occurred within a 12 reasonable time after they have been requested, so no hard and fast rule regarding future
13 conferences should issue.

14 IX. CLASS ACTIONS

15 This is not a class action.

16 X. RELATED CASES

17 Counsel for plaintiffs are aware of two pending related proceedings to this case:
18 ConnectU Inc. v. Mark Zuckerberg et al., No. 04-11923 (D.Mass) and ConnectU LLC v. Mark
19 Zuckerberg et al., No. 07-1796 (1st Cir.). The First Circuit appeal was filed when an earlier, 20 related case was dismissed on March 28, 2007, and arguments were heard on January 9, 2008.
21 That case was ConnectU LLC v. Mark Zuckerberg, et al., No. 1:07-CV-10593-DPW.

22 XI. RELIEF

23 Plaintiffs’ Position: Plaintiffs seek judgment against Defendants including various forms
24 of general, punitive and statutory damages¹, disgorgement by Defendants, pre- and post-

25 ¹ Plaintiffs seek damages including: Compensatory damages pursuant to California Penal Code §
26 502(e)(1) and 18 U.S.C. § 1030 (a)(4) for costs of responding to Defendants’ actions; exemplary
27 damages under California Civil Code § 3426.3(c), punitive damages under California Penal Code
28 § 502(e)(4) (exemplary or punitive damages), economic damages under 18 U.S.C. § 1030
(a)(5)(B)(i); statutory damages under 15 U.S.C. § 7706(g), et seq.; and aggravated damages under 15 U.S.C. § 7706(g), including treble and general damages.

1 judgment interest; injunctive relief, and attorneys' fees and costs. Assuming that at least 3 million
2 email addresses were sent unsolicited emails with false header information and that the email
3 addresses were harvested by automated means, plaintiff seeks statutory damages of at least $900
4 million under the CAN-SPAM Act., 15 U.S.C. § 7706(g).

5 Defendants' Position: Defendants seek their costs and other appropriate relief for the 6 filing of this frivolous action.

7 XII. SETTLEMENT AND ADR

8 The parties agree that mediation may be desirable. They disagree as to the scope of any 9 potential mediation. To that end, Counsel for Facebook and ConnectU have a fundamental 10 difference regarding the potential for settlement. Their positions are set forth below.

11 Plaintiffs believe that the parties should seek a global settlement of all disputes between 12 the parties through mediation with a mediator experienced in resolving complex disputes. To the 13 extent any Defendant in the Massachusetts Action not a party to this action is needed, Plaintiffs 14 believe they will appear voluntarily.²

15 Defendants propose that discovery be stayed and the Court conduct an immediate 16 settlement conference and/or mediation as it concerns the allegations asserted in this action.

17 XIII. CONSENT TO MAGISTRATE JUDGE FOR ALL PURPOSES

18 The parties already have consented to Magistrate Judge Seeborg for all purposes in this 19 matter.

20 XIV. OTHER REFERENCES

21 Plaintiffs do not believe that this case is suitable for reference to binding arbitration, a 22 special master, or the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation. Defendants would consider such 23 options.

24
25
26
27 ² Plaintiffs' counsel in this case represents all Defendants in the Massachusetts action except for 28 one.

1 XV. NARROWING OF ISSUES

2 Plaintiffs' Position: Because of much of the discovery in this case has already taken place
3 in related cases and before this action was removed to this Court, Plaintiffs believe summary
4 judgment as to certain issues will be appropriate in this case. Plaintiff filed a motion for partial 5 summary judgment on January 7, 2008.

6 Defendants' Position: See Defendants' discussion in its section under "Anticipated
7 Motions."

8 XVI. EXPEDITED SCHEDULES

9 Plaintiffs' Position: Because of much of the discovery in this case has already taken place
10 in related cases and before this action was removed to this Court, Plaintiffs believe that this case 11 may be resolved on an expedited basis.

12 Defendants' Position: Again Defendants note Plaintiffs' inconsistency in asserting that 13 discovery is largely completed, and their request to disregard the Federal and Local Rules given 14 the breadth of the remaining discovery. Several new defendants, including David Gucwa and 15 Wayne Chang have only recently been added to this case. They should be entitled to investigate 16 the claims asserted against them, and conduct discovery at a reasonable pace.

17 Regarding Defendant ConnectU, L.L.C., their principals and key witnesses are Cameron
18 and Tyler Winklevoss. They have been preparing for the 2008 summer Olympics in Beijing in 19 rowing for at least the past four years. Their current schedule involves four hours of daily 20 workouts, with only an occasional day off to rest and recover. The schedule for preparing for the 21 Olympics is considered "full time". At this stage, athletes preparing for the 2008 Olympics are 22 not advised to travel or become involved with other activities that would take away from the goal
23 of fully concentrating on their anticipated Olympic event. Shortly Messrs. Winklevoss's workout
24 schedule will demand an expected eight hours on a daily basis. The Olympics are scheduled for 25 August of this year. For the Messrs. Winklevoss, the Olympics are a once-in-a-lifetime event.
26 Plaintiffs' proposed schedule would make it impossible for the Winklevoss's to meaningfully
27 participate in final preparation of this case, or even attend a trial, if one should occur. This case 28 easily could have been resolved some time ago, but for Plaintiffs' decision to amend their

1 complaint two times, bringing in already dismissed parties, and adding new claims. The 2 Winklevoss's should have the opportunity to fulfill their Olympic goals, and to defend the 3 company they started, without having to compromise either event. Respectfully, the 4 Winklevoss's request that if a trial is necessary in this case, a schedule that will allow them to 5 meaningfully participate in it, and to prepare for and attend the Olympics, should be adopted.

6 XVII. SCHEDULING

	Plaintiffs' Position	Defendants' Position
Fact Discovery Cut-off	March 17, 2008	September 30, 2008
Expert Reports	April 2, 2008	October 31, 2008
Rebuttal Expert Reports	May 15, 2008	November 30, 2008
Expert Discovery Cutoff	April 17, 2008	December 31, 2008
Last Day to Hear Dispositive Motions	June 4, 2008	February 28, 2009
Pre-trial Hearing	July 16, 2008	March 30, 2009
Trial	July 30, 2008	April 15, 2009

19 XVIII. TRIAL

20 Through their Second Amended Complaint, Plaintiffs seek a jury trial. Given the number 21 of claims and defendants, as of this date Plaintiffs anticipate a trial length of two weeks.

22 XIX. DISCLOSURE OF NON-PARTY INTERESTED ENTITIES AND PERSON

23 Pursuant to Civil L.R. 3-16, Plaintiffs and Defendants certify that as of this date, other 24 than the named parties, there is no such interest to report. See Dkt. Nos. 20, 32.
